4) The District Judge and his chief court find that the work of the Munsiff's Court has steadily increased. That it is absolutely necessary to sanction that the establishment be made permanent. The statement furnished shows that the work in the Kolar Court is as much as that in Chick Ballapur Court. The latter has 16 hands while the former has only 13. The Second Munsiff's Court has 15 hands. The increase is necessary. The only question is whether the establishment already sanctioned for 2 years may continue temporarily for one more year or may be made permanent. It may generally be stated as a general rule that such temporary establishments are "Protected" and continue to never decrease except on the due date.

Registrar of the Chief Court of Mysore.

To

Chief Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
Bangalore.

S i r,

Adverting to Government Proceedings No. J. 2597-98/ Cts. 139-16-4, dated the 23rd January 1917, sanctioning temporarily for two years, the addition of two gumastas on Rs. 20/- each per mensem to the clerical establishment of the Munsiff's Court, Kolar, I am directed to state that the District Judge of Bangalore has reported that the work of that court has been more or less steadily increasing and that at the time of his inspection of that court he noticed that the additional hands greatly contributed towards keeping the office work up to date and has recommended that the temporary establishment should be made permanent.

From the enclosed statement it will be seen that the work of the Kolar Munsiff's Court is equal to, if not more than that of the other Munsiffs' Courts which are allowed an establishment consisting of 11 clerks.

I

I am to state that the Judges think that the Kolar Munsiff's Court should also have an establishment consisting of 11 permanent clerks as recommended by the District Judge in order that office work may not fall into arrears.

I am therefore to request that the Government may be pleased to pass orders making permanent the two temporary gumastas already sanctioned to that court. The extra cost during the current official year may be met from the lumpsum provision of Rs. 2,000/- under the head 3. District and Civil Courts, Process Serving Establishment.

I have the honour to be.

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
